Sexual Education

Questions:

1. Do you believe God created sex?
2. In what ways does it reflect Him?
3. If sex is a celebration of unity, what unity supersedes sex?

Consider:

1. If unity with God through Jesus Christ is the unity that supersedes sex, what hope does this provide to the following?
 - a. Never married
 - b. Married with an ill spouse
 - c. Divorced
 - d. Widowed
2. Consider your last week. Did sexual messages present themselves to your thoughts? How? What were their messages?
3. What effect did those messages have on your thinking?
4. Identify venues that repeatedly undermine your holy understanding of sex.

Challenge:

1. Be able to spot and renounce corrupt messages about sex.
2. Avoid those venues that commonly undermine your holy understanding of sex.
3. Recalibrate your thinking about sex towards a biblical view of sex.

For our next meeting:

1. What falsehood about sex have you believed because of worldly sexual influence?
2. Did you have a holy view of sex this week?
 - a. If yes... how so?
 - b. If no... why so?
